

Dane Hudson

Golden Lotus Award Winner

A French and linguistics major, Dane Hudson is this year's Golden Lotus Award recipient. A talented writer and emerging scholar, he is already a master of French stylistics. Dr. Kaliane Ung notes that in her Creative Writing class, Dane "put together a truly groundbreaking and fascinating portfolio on masculinity, desire and coming of age." Indeed, she remarks, "his analysis of queer sexualities, mobilities and narratives of the self are fertile ground for future scholarly research and/or creative endeavors." In all his classes, faculty have been most impressed by Dane's generosity toward his peers, always encouraging fellow students in their own work. His future scholarly and artistic ambitions are most promising. We look forward to his future work and publications in French. Congratulations, Dane!